FRANKLIN, Tenn. – Steven Fisk shot a 67, and the Georgia Southern men's golf team tied for the third-lowest round on day two of the Mason Rudolph Championship Saturday at the Vanderbilt Legends Club South Course.

Fisk (-9) is tied for second with Nolan Ray of Tennessee, one shot behind Austin Kendzierski of Marquette. The field features five teams in the top-45, including fourth-ranked Vanderbilt, which is hosting the tournament, and 12 individuals in the top-100.

The Eagles moved up one spot into 12th but are within 10 strokes of the top-5. No. 4 Vanderbilt shot 15-under today to move up nine spots into first place and overtake No. 25 Tennessee, which is tied for second with Coastal Carolina (-11). No. 20 Liberty (-10) is fourth, and Memphis is fifth (-7). Georgia Southern is a stroke ahead of Mississippi State and three behind Middle Tennessee.

Fisk made six birdies on the day and posted four on the back nine to shoot 3-under on the side. Brett Barron made birdies at 7 and 15 and had just one blemish on his card, a bogey on the 465-yard, par-4 9th on his way to a 70. Ben Carr played his final eight holes 2-under with a birdie on 18 to shoot an even 71, and individual Jake Maples birdied three of his final six holes of the day to shoot 69.
